

ST MARY MACKILLOP

Day Six - A Woman of Prayer

Let us place ourselves in the presence of God and Mary MacKillop.

We reflect on Mary, a Woman of Prayer

God Will Take Care of us all by Pauline Wicks

Pray my dear sisters, as I know well you are doing – but pray in the many ways I told you before leaving. The cause is that of the Sacred Heart, and St Joseph is its pleader, but he looks for many petitions and acts of love from his children, which he knows well how to present to the Sacred Heart. What he, and that loving Heart through his intercession have done for us is not possible to be yet told – but if I had time, and that it was yet good to dwell upon these things, I could tell you volumes. 16th May, 1873

Reflection

Joan Chittister: A Monastery of the Heart

Prayer lightens the load.

It gives fresh direction and new energy.

It fixes the eye of the soul

On the real ends of life, when the real goal of real time

Seem unattainable. (pg 35)

Take time to allow these words to speak to you.

Praying

Mary, teach me to trust in God that God will provide what is needed for me to be a person of prayer.
