A Co-ordinated Approach

by Mary Hemmings

Sr Moya Campbell rsj has been appointed by the Sisters of St Joseph to 'walk' with the Josephite Associates over the next three years. She is working especially with IJALT (International Josephite Associate Leadership Team) to support us to develop our Associates to become a sustainable and autonomous organisation.

As part of this role Sr Moya is presently visiting Associates across Australia and New Zealand as a means of gaining a 'big picture' view of what is happening in our different regions/states. In early May she visited South Australia. Here Sr Moya met with the Josephite Leadership Team, namely Srs Margaret Cleary, Brigitte Sipa and Chris Schwerdt. She had a gathering with many of the Sisters to gain their perspectives on the Associates and to share with them about her role and our future.

On the afternoon of the 2nd May about 12 Associates met with Sr Moya. This was a time for her to listen to our story of what is happening here in South Australia. We shared the activities that occur in Adelaide and acknowledged the presence of our many Associates in country areas, many who are very involved in their communities, and those who are no longer able to be present at gatherings due to illness or age. Sr Moya listened as Associates shared their thoughts of the value of being Associates and possibilities for the future of our movement. Sr Moya also outlined the different pathways which people are choosing to be connected in with the Josephite story: as Sisters or Associates, or as Covenant Josephites or Privately Vowed. Following this gathering, Sr Moya met with our Leadership Team over an evening meal at the Kingswood Convent. This was a valuable time for us to share our hopes for the future.

We look forward to Sr Moya's sharing with us later in the year about what emerges from her visits to the different regions.

Our Associate Focus in 2018/2019

A reminder that our current focus centres around the issue of social justice. As such we are directing our efforts towards Catherine House and the Mercy House of Welcome at Kilburn. At all of our gatherings during the year, Associates (and others who may like to help) are invited to bring along an item or two that the Associates' Leadership Team will ensure is delivered to Catherine House to support the women. These items may include toiletries, women's pyjamas and underwear (all new please). Other practical suggestions are available on their website at <https://catherinehouse.org.au>.

Thank you for all contributions so far.

Queensland Josephite Associate Conference by Mary Hemmings

In May this year I was privileged to be invited to speak at the Queensland Associate Conference in Brisbane. About 45 Associates and Sisters gathered, with people coming from as far away as Rockhampton and Townsville, together with staff from some schools.

The theme of the Conference was Step Forward with Mary MacKillop – Find our Path in the World Today. Sr Monica Cavanagh, the Josephite Congregational Leader, delivered an inspiring opening address on the Friday evening, reflecting on some of the qualities that Mary MacKillop showed as she stepped forward in her time. She spoke of Mary MacKillop as:

- a woman of presence and passion,
- a woman of courage and compassion,
- a woman of hospitality and humility.

Sr Monica helped us to see that Mary's story invites us to be, like Mary, courageous risk-takers moving beyond the familiar to embrace new hopes and new dreams. Just as Mary stepped forward with dignity, we too can do the same, taking the honourable action no matter what others think.

I was asked to speak on Josephite Associates: Our Mission into the Future. For this I used Pope Francis's Prayer Intention for the month of May as my focus: "That the lay faithful may fulfil their specific mission by responding with creativity to the challenges that face the world today."

In light of this, I reflected that we are all on about God's Mission. "By virtue of our baptism, all the members of the People of God have become missionary disciples. All the baptized, whatever their position in the Church or their level of instruction in the faith, are agents of evangelization." (Vatican 11)

Joan Chittester, a Benedictine Sister says: "A charism is a continuing force which compels us to participate in the mission of Jesus by addressing contemporary issues." As Josephite Associates who share in the charism of Mary MacKillop, we therefore are invited to support one another in being aware of how we can make a difference in our sphere of influence so that in our everyday lives we can "respond with creativity to the challenges that face the world today."

Pam Betts, Executive Director of Brisbane Catholic Education, presented on our last day. She looked at Mary's story and ours today through the lens of the Gifts of the Holy Spirit. In her words: "We live in a world which demands much from us but so did Mary of the Cross MacKillop. ...the attributes she possessed are needed now and into the future."

The Conference was a time of great energy and enthusiasm and those present were certainly committed to continuing to 'grow' our Associate movement as a way of continuing God's mission. I delighted in being part of an enthusiastic and committed group of people so willing to follow in the footsteps of Mary MacKillop.

Presenter: Sr Catherine Clark rsj

On the feast day of Mary MacKillop come, listen and be part of the conversation as Sr Catherine explores issues of social justice which is the focus of the Associates this year.

Sr Catherine will base her presentation on the following questions:

- What was it in Mary MacKillop's own life that made her so committed to social justice?
- What was it in Australian society of the time, especially that of South Australia, that made the need for such a response so great?
- As a consequence of her own experience and the circumstances of her time, how did Mary respond and what did such a response cost her and her early companions personally?
- Is the call to social justice today the same as in Mary's time? What makes it similar or different?
- To what are we called today?

Following Sr Catherine's talk a light meal will be served. A RSVP would be appreciated. Please contact Mary Hemmings on 0417 871 904 or email sa.associates@sosj.org.au by Friday 3rd August.

Baking in Bethany – Many Hands Make Light Work

By Bridgette Barrett (with some poetic license)
(2nd June 2018)

We gathered at Bethany in the grounds Mary MacKillop had walked,
We met to chop, prepare and cook as we talked.

The food was all going to feed women at Catherine House,
For women alone with no supportive spouse.

Pauline brought melting moments she had precooked,
And once they were iced tasted as good as they looked.

Julie had us for soup, chopping onions and pumpkin,
That is always good for anytime consumption.

Carla chopped and stirred and stirred and stirred to make fantastica beef,
The tiles behind had tomato sauce splattered and were wiped with relief.

Mary prepared vegetables to mix in the tuna mornay to bake,
Then continued to cut strawberries to place on her cheesecake.

Jan rolled in with a hearty vegetable soup,
And then got to work with the rest of the group.

Josephine and Richard brought bread and spring rolls that were frozen,
They will be used later as the need arises, I'm "suppose'n".

Amanda created a favourite from home – vegetarian pasta,
She's so skilled at this that we all had to chop 'faste'.

Bridgette brought apples, topping and quinces for a crumble,
'Cos the thought of that would make all tummies rumble.

Lucia donated goods to make lemon cakes that were iced,
They were lucky to escape without being sliced.

Julie said, "I have brought some apricots, some balls will we create",
So again we were chopping and mixing coconut with no need to bake.

Majella said, "I've got biscuits for a hedgehog slice,
That can be eaten anytime and is always nice."

We brought all the ingredients we thought we would need,
And then combined some as well as we all agreed.

So Pauline and Amanda packed the car,
Fortunately, they didn't have to drive very far.

To add to the food there were lotions and potions,
Whatever we had to spare.

They could be used by the ladies for skin repair,
And also some products best worn with underwear.

All in all, we had a great day,
Jumping into Justice to give it all away.

Catherine House accepted everything warmly,
And couldn't have been more pleased.
As some of their funding and cooking need concerns
Had truly been eased.

Mary MacKillop and the Sacred Heart of Jesus

Introduction

God's abiding and provident love was always at the centre of the life of Mary MacKillop and this was included in the name of the Congregation, the Sisters of St Joseph of the Sacred Heart.

The Sisters have always rejoiced in this gift and have tried to live ever more fully into the name, 'of the Sacred Heart' and all that it implies.

Scripture

Thus says God, "When Israel was a child I loved her, out of Egypt I called my child. Yet it was I who taught Ephraim to walk, who took them in my arms; I drew them with human cords, with bands of love; I fostered them like one who raises an infant to her cheeks. Yet, though I stooped to feed my child, they did not know that I was their healer. My heart is overwhelmed, my pity is stirred. I will not give vent to my blazing anger, I will not destroy Ephraim again, for I am God and not a person, the Holy One present among you; I will not let the flames consume you." Hosea 11:1, 3-4, 8c-9

Reflection

When do I recognise that others love me?

When do I recognise God's love of me?

From the Pen of Mary MacKillop

"May the Sacred Heart shield you and uphold you in every trouble." (1873)

Blessing

May God bless us with listening ears and open hearts to the world's needs.

May God bless us with responding hearts that care for those in need.

May God bless us with hearts that create communities wherever we are.

May God bless us with the fire of love on our journey.

Amen

Action

Listen to the needs of our community and respond with love, especially towards refugees and women escaping abuse.
